INTRODUCTION.

The election is over and sensible Americans, and especially business men, are breathing easier over the rejection by the American voter of the counterfeit offerings and panaceas of fanatical and ranting radicals, red flag wavers and demagogues. Their false issues and futile schemes did not blind the vision of the independent and thoughtful Americans who have so signally defeated them. The Supreme Court and our Constitution seem safe, at least for a time to come. Therefore we ask you to now turn your attention to this very important sale and to note what an array of rarities and choice gems we offer you in the way of valuable coins, in the Stetson and other collections, described in this catalogue. The rarities are so many and the variety so great that a short introduction like this does them somewhat of an injustice. Take for instance the last session, Saturday's, and you will find a really remarkable lot of offerings in big rarities, coins in the finest condition obtainable, including all denominations from 25c gold to $50 gold of Wass Moliter & Company. Here is a brief list of but a few of the outstanding gems to be offered and sold:

Gold Ring Dollar, 1852.

Virginia Penny and Half Penny, 1773.

This is a more important and valuable sale than was our last one.

We invite you to either send your bids or attend it personally. The lots will all change hands and it presents a fine opportunity to add desirable pieces to your collection.

Kindly be careful to bid on the lot you intend to buy.
Kindly remember this is an auction sale and not an approval sale. Lots secured must be accepted and paid for.

We ask you to look carefully over the catalogue as all three sessions contain much material of importance and interest.

Don't forget we would be glad to catalogue either your collection or duplicates for sale in our approaching sales.

This is one of our very finest sales. Don't miss it. No other sale to be held by us until February next.

Its spirited head was imitated in the earliest coins of the United States, such as the Cents and half cents of 1794, 1795 and 1796. The mottoes were supplied to B. Franklin by Sir Wm. Jones. The two dates on reverse typify the great victories of Saratoga and Yorktown. At Saragota a great number of prisoners and guns were taken, and also at Yorktown (said to have been over 150 cannon, mostly brass). The dies for the medal were made in the year 1782. Of the greatest historical interest and of the highest rarity. Diameter 50 MM.

VERY RARE GRANBY THREE PENCE, 1737.

2201 1737. THREE PENCE. Obv. A deer standing to the left, a crescent above, (hand). VALVE. ME. AS. YOU. PLEASE. III within a scroll, a crescent beneath. Reverse. Three crowned hammers I. AM. GOOD. COPPER. Two wedge-shaped ornamentations, an asterisk between them. 1737. Obverse of Bushnell Lot 191

(in finer condition than Bushnell's). Reverse of his Lot 190. The very identical dies. Very good, parts fine, value and date also strong. One of the best we have seen. Excessively rare. Crosby mentions the Bushnell example on page 325, which is a different combination of obverse and reverse dies. This specimen is Crosby Plate VIII. No. 22, of which obverse type three dies are illustrated. This is the one with the wedge-shaped ornaments close together at the points.

Mr. Poole inherited this coin, together with many other U. S. copper cents from his grandfather. Unfortunately he gave it a bath with Bon Ami two years ago and the results of this cleaning are still visible. Still it is in general respects one of the best Granby coins known, and of the highest rarity. The edge is black, as he did not get that part cleaned.
